

Extension/Outbuilding Example

The example below was the concept of a single story extension, but to be designed in a way that it is classed as an out-building. The addition to this property was for the creation of an external sauna/shower area with a 80% glazed lounge area for use all year round.

